

VRCA Member of the Year Award

Vancouver Regional Construction Association invites you to nominate a VRCA Member for recognition at the VRCA's Awards of Excellence evening as VRCA Member of the Year, in recognition of outstanding achievement by a company or its employees. Self nominations are welcome.

Criteria

The firm nominated should be a VRCA member with whom you have worked for at least the past two years. The nominee should be a company considered by you to have displayed excellence in the industry of a kind or quality distinct from the normal. We encourage you to consider the following as possible criteria:

- Emphasizes requirements for quality and safety in job performance
- Sets an exemplary example for the construction industry
- Meets commitments made
- Works well in a team
- Knowledgeable in their field
- Proactive and responsive
- Displays pride in their work
- Good communicator
- Has made a significant contribution to VRCA, the construction industry or their community through their activities.

A complete nomination package must be delivered to the VRCA office by August 22, 2011 and should contain:

- Completed nomination form
- List of Project(s) on which you have jointly worked
- A one page summary of why the firm nominated deserves recognition as Member of the Year
- 2 reference letters from VRCA Members
